

COULD THERE EVER BE A BETTER PLACE TO MEET PEOPLE?

Six days in gorgeous Tuscany, staying in the villa that was once home to Napoleon Bonaparte's sister, the Princess Elisa, now an elegant hotel.

Tour Florence, the city of the Renaissance, luxurious Lucca and Pisa of the leaning tower. Go crazy in the famous market of Forte dei Marmi, where Italian designer clothes can be bought for a fraction of the regular price, then people-watch while sipping coffee in the piazza. Breathe deeply the sea air of Viareggio with its bustling boardwalk or take a ride in a surrey with friends.

Cycle on wide city walls, hike the fabulous Cinque Terre, dine on authentic Tuscan food and drink fine Italian wines. (Full-time Kashrut supervision).

Fine art, incredible architecture and opera abound. Cooking with a top chef and an art appreciation session will be offered.

Charismatic speakers will lead informal discussions on a variety of specially chosen very topical Jewish issues.

Kashrut .

Regular milk and Pat Palter - Chalav & Pat Yisrael on request.

When?

May 11-16th, 2010
The meeting point is at Pisa airport at 1pm on Tuesday May 11, timed for arrival of DIRECT flights from JFK (Delta) and London, and from TLV via Rome.

You will return to Pisa Sunday May 16th mid-day to catch a plane or a train, with the possibility of traveling to Israel for Shavuot, which begins on Tuesday May 18th.

For Whom?

Modern Orthodox singles, aged 28-45

We'll have about 50 high-quality guests, a guaranteed 60/40 sex ratio at most, and all must prove their age when registering.

By registering you accept that you are determined to have a fantastic vacation with others similar to yourselves for whom Shabbat and Kashrut are important values.

By Whom?

I am Sara Blum.

I am single, 33 years of age, originally from Toronto, living for 10 years in Katamon, Jerusalem. I have rich experience in organizing singles events and know that a trip like this can bring about wonderful results.

I have co-operated on this project with Naomi Kosher Boutique Tours, a company that has become a leader in the field of upscale touring in classical Europe.

Price

All Naomi tours are designed for a discerning clientele and no expense is spared in making the tours spectacular.

For this tour, due to its particular importance, Naomi has agreed to accept a much lower price.

$2500 / 1750euro / 9700nis
which covers everything from landing to take-off (ie not including airfare)

Contact Information

Sara Blum

sara_blum@hotmail.com

++972 52 2864719

Naomi Boutique Kosher Tours

www.naomicatering.com

eric@naomicatering.com

++972 52 3860551